

'You'll Fit In' - Webinar Series 2025

Trinity Hall, Cambridge

Those who sign up for the 'You'll Fit In' programme will be able to participate in online webinars that will offer advice about all aspects of the Cambridge Admissions process, and they will also have the opportunity to chat to current undergraduates to hear more about Cambridge from their perspective. The webinars series consists of the following:

Webinar	Dates*	Content
Launch	16 th December 17:00-18:00	An introduction to the programme and the timeline for university applications in Oct 2025. Parents are strongly encouraged to attend alongside applicants as they will also have the opportunity for Q&A.
An Introduction to Cambridge University	Early January	Explains Cambridge and how it differs from many universities; what Colleges are; what Faculties / Departments are; advice on researching university courses; a chance to ask current undergraduates about how they made their choices.
Meet a Humanities student Meet a STEM student	Mid-to-late January	Students from both Arts/Humanities and Science faculties will join us to discuss their experience of Cambridge teaching and learning.
Super-curricular Engagement	Mid-February	Advice about super-curriculars vs extra-curriculars, where to start; discussion of how super-curriculars support your application.
Financial support	Early March	Discussion of student loans, bursaries, and other sources of funding. Discussion of options for those who want to avoid Riba.
Personal Statements	Late March	What the Personal Statement is, and how it should be structured according to the new guidance; the importance of including super-curriculars; practical tips on how to start.
Cambridge and Identity	Late April	Student ambassadors will discuss their experience as members of the University outside of their academic work and how it intersects with their identity.

Admissions Assessments	Mid-May	Why and how we use Admissions Assessments; deadlines for early registration; how to prepare [this webinar would only be for those participants who must take admissions assessments].
Q&A for parents	Mid-June	Parents are invited to attend and discuss the issues they are concerned about regarding both the application process and their child attending Cambridge if they receive an offer.
Interviews and Conclusion	July	Advice about the interviews, what to expect, and how to prepare; student ambassadors will share some of their interview experiences; this will be the final webinar in the series.

*Exact dates for the webinars to be confirmed prior to the launch on December 16th.